ROBLOX is a company characterized by its community-based culture. This is reflected in its games, which are generally hosted on the website (as opposed to the product), and as a result, are built by users for users. The developers at ROBLOX have stated that they are completely open to third party developmentâ€”the only restriction on what is considered acceptable and permissible is that all products must be compatible with ROBLOX's Terms of Service. Whether ROBLOX soft products will be accepted into the Steam platform is still unconfirmed.

Premium game mechanics can also be implemented in free games. However, due to the fact that all premium features are only available in Builder's Club, in most cases they will if there is no way for the developer to observe this from a third-party mod or script perspective, then it can only be done via a Builders Club Premium.[54]

On January 24th, 2021, ROBLOX released a plan for their future development. The main goal is to separate ROBLOX from its animation engine and make it its own game platform.[107] This will greatly cut down on the amount of time it takes to develop games for the site.

In June 2021, ROBLOX introduced their simplified privacy policy and terms of service. Under this policy, all private chats were deleted upon logging out.[4] However, any game-related chats will remain in-game. Users are able to delete their own game-related chats, but deleting a chat does not automatically delete the messages or comments within that chat.
