In 2021, ROBLOX updated their entire website to match the current version of their branding. The new design was made to be sharper and cleaner than the former one, and removed many visual effects that were seen as archaic and dated. A few key features of this change include a slightly larger "R", as well as a background shape for it similar to that of a "double-r", which ended up being used for every future iteration of the logo. This design is still used on the website today, albeit with variations in how it is utilized.

It also prohibits them from using Roblox's data for behavioral advertising such as ad marketing based on the age groups or ethnicity of an individual user. The report by CNBC states that this can be seen in their products where they use this data to serve ads on other sites that are owned by the company.

On December 15th, 2021, ROBLOX announced the end of the open beta for their new trading system. The company removed the ability to trade in-game currency among users and limited users' ability to purchase system currency from outside sources while adding even more security features by requiring cards or other forms of identification before buying virtual currency. The reason for the change was to prevent users from spending too much virtual currency on outside purchases of no value to the user. The system was a success, reducing the rate of fraud.[25]

The acquisition is part of a strategy by RoLabX to become a global gaming powerhouse with operations in China, with over 50% of revenues coming from China alone by 2021. The deal also confirmed that Tencent will continue to operate as the chief customer and user experience partner for ROBLOX. In late 2021, ROBLOX announced that they would be running advertisements on their site. Unfortunately, these advertisements were run-of-the-mill ads and did not produce any revenue for the company itself but also had a negative impact on their community as they were being flooded with ads featuring nudity, extreme gore, racism and other inappropriate content. In addition to this, many games would feature these ads despite not making any money from them themselves. ROBLOX was banned from Xbox Live in 2021 due to the game running advertisements which violated Microsoft's Terms of Service by being inappropriate for children. The ads contained anime-style nudity and extreme gore. This was later changed however when Roblox reached an agreement with Xbox Live regarding the matter between them.

On June 26th, 2021, ROBLOX CEO John Hanke made an announcement on Twitter that the company would be removing the ability to create avatars for users within games and requiring new avatars to be created instead. Once this update was implemented however, users were able to create new models based on existing ones and preserve them as a template which they could then upload into games alongside their original avatar. This update was to lower fraud within the site with copyright infringement and promoting copyright infringement by bypassing game mechanics by allowing users to create avatars of other users' games.[21]

On September 30th, 2021, ROBLOX released a "make your own toy" simulator called "Work at a Pizza Place". It proved very controversial as many users perceived it to be a lazy game and was rushed out without being finished. There were also many players complaining about how they could make money by selling pizza hats and shirts. However, this was only intended for people who would want to work at ROBLOX pizza.

Not all games are created equal and often we see them develop at an incredibly fast pace which makes us believe that this process will be smooth and easy but it doesn't always happen that way: first of all, people often have unrealistic expectations for themselves and secondly they forget to look at what others are doing and how the market reacts to new games.

There are also people who scam other players by selling items with prices they can't get for items that aren't worth much at all when you try to sell them. I once had someone scam me because of that. They told me their account was hacked and that they could fix it for me if I give them one of my item. So I gave them one and they scammed me. Another problem is when people are posting comments and other players comment back at them about it. There is a lot of spamming going on, but the worst part is there is a lot of inappropriate content that is being made like adult themes, swearing, and inappropriate skins.
