Roblox cannot afford to go down the path of Farmville. They need to remain an open source program for everyone, where people can come together as equals and play fun games without being forced to pay money to be able to continue having fun within their virtual world. People who think they can't afford to pay should just get used to not having an ROBLOX account because that's what's happening. People are being kicked off the server by player banning.

On December 18th, 2021, ROBLOX announced their controversial decision on how they plan on handling moderators in the future.[106] This caused controversy within the community as many moderators believed they wouldn't be able to perform their job correctly due to ROBLOX's change of plan.

On September 11, 2021, Roblox announced that they would be adding new systems to help curb and prevent problems like "Miner's Haven". They stated that users who are reported for breaking these rules will be put on a probationary moderation period, or P-mod. P-mods can say they had violated these rules for up to 72 hours. If the user continues to break the rules and continue breaking it after 72 hours, Roblox will issue a permanent ban for both the user and their account. The users who are in this moderation period will not be able to play Roblox games until 72 hours pass from when the user is released from the P-mod status. The users will also receive a warning from Roblox before they are released from the P-mod status.

According to a report by "The Guardian", Roblox has been criticized for being a "digital playground" that involves more than 50% of their users under the age of 18. The report states that there are over 200 million players on Roblox who have access to weapons and themes that include sexual references and violence. They also said that Roblox emphasizes the idea of user privacy which can be seen in their games by having players invite other users via email or text messages.

ROBLOX does not allow players below the age of 13 than sign up for an account. This is because of the maturity level that ROBLOX expects all players to have. ROBLOX does not allow users to make profanity in the game and the server does not allow it, however there are many areas on the game and on their website that do, such as chat boxes in games. They have also recently added a filter button which blocks certain words from appearing in chat. This feature was created to block words that appear to be offensive and potentially harmful at times.[42]
