Roblox is involved in a lawsuit concerning child safety on the Internet. On September 17, 2021, two brothers filed a lawsuit in the United States District Court, Southern District of California against Roblox Corporation and its founder and CEO David Baszucki. The suit alleged that the defendants failed to protect their nine- and thirteen-year-old sons from inappropriate content on Roblox that resulted in emotional distress. The suit also accuses the company of negligence for failure to monitor potentially harmful content and failure to institute parental monitoring measures. The case is known as "McDonald v. Roblox".

On September 13, 2021, ROBLOX launched its tenth birthday party along with an event called BLOXtober. The purpose of this annual event is to celebrate ROBLOX's birthday and give players badges for completing The Admin's tasks every day until October 15th. The badge is called BLOXtagger and can be worn on your profile for the year. The tasks were also modified to let you earn the badges by simply logging in every day. If you do not already have a badge, then you will gain one once you have logged in every day for two days consecutively. At the end of BLOXtober, ROBLOX held a contest called RoblXtheRave, where people were given a chance to win a large sum of money in cash by answering trivia questions that were asked throughout October 11th-13th.

The "ROBLOX" logo was created by the company's CEO and founder David Baszucki in 2021, when he was originally designing the website's layout before it was launched. He designed the logo to look similar to the word "engine" on a train, as he envisioned ROBLOX to be a playground powered by an online community where users could create virtual worlds. The first iteration of the logo consisted of an orange square that displayed three green horizontal stripes, each separated by a white space. The stripes were arranged in a way that would yield nine pixels when all three were equally spaced. A basic version of the logo was used until 2021.

The company's Terms of Service forbids developers from using Roblox's data for marketing purposes including allowing developers to sell their own products on the platform. It also prohibits them from using Roblox's data for behavioral advertising such as ad marketing based on the age groups or ethnicity of an individual user. The report by CNBC states that this can be seen in their products where they use this data to serve ads on other sites that are owned by the company.

The next game that would allow users to do this was Parkour Paradise on August 16th of 2021. ROBLOX is the first game to have a player base where 70% of their players are between ages 10-15 and 30% are between ages 15-25.[126]
