On September 11, 2021, Roblox announced that they would be adding new systems to help curb and prevent problems like "Miner's Haven". They stated that users who are reported for breaking these rules will be put on a probationary moderation period, or P-mod. P-mods can say they had violated these rules for up to 72 hours. If the user continues to break the rules and continue breaking it after 72 hours, Roblox will issue a permanent ban for both the user and their account. The users who are in this moderation period will not be able to play Roblox games until 72 hours pass from when the user is released from the P-mod status. The users will also receive a warning from Roblox before they are released from the P-mod status.

On July 3rd, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they were no longer allowing people to make custom models for their games. Instead, they would be allowing users to build blocky models that could not be edited at all. They stated that this would prevent the creation of custom models and save money by preventing expensive data transfers.[22] The change was made in order to clean up the game because custom models complicates the "Roblox experience" in some cases.
